

I am APPALLED at the idea that Sinclair could force its stations to broadcast what is essential an uninterrupted advertisement for Bush/Cheney the night before the election. This is NOT the same as "Farenheit 9/11" airing on TV or a panel of conservative "talking heads" slamming Kerry. This is an egregious misuse of authority and I honestly believe they should face criminal charges or at the least a heavy fine for attempting anything so blatantly unethical.

Lorraine Feather